Home Learning Policy

Date of policy: May 2012

Date last review adopted by governing body: 26 February 2019

Frequency of review: Annual

1. Introduction

Learning at home is an essential part of good education. It encourages children to become confident and independent in their learning, which will help throughout their time at school and, later, in adult life.

At Writtle Infant School home learning refers to any learning activity that pupils are asked to do outside of normal lesson time. The home learning tasks are generally related to work that pupils are doing in school, often as preparation, consolidation, follow-up or extension. Home learning can be done by pupils working on their own or with the support of parents or carers. Information is given via the school newsletter and in a dedicated section on our website.

Please note that should parents decide to take their children out of school, for example for a holiday, it is impractical to offer work, for example the learning set for the week may be changed depending on the understanding of the children or the lessons may be practical. Children can read or use Bug club or parents can assist their children to write a diary. Other apps may be used for example we are trialling a Powermaths app.
