

Writtle Infant School Young Architects

Suggested Further Reading, Events and Organisations

If your child has enjoyed Young Architects and wants to read more about Architecture and the built-environment, or you want to know more about organisations that run events for children and families related to the subject, please see the below table of useful suggested reading and organisations to research.

Suggested Further Reading

Title	Author/Publisher	ISBN
What Adults Don't Know About Architecture: Inspiring young minds to build a more beautiful world	The School of Life	1912891301
Mr Rouse Builds His House	Franciszka and Stefan Thermerson	184976154X
The House of Happy Spirits	Geraldine Elschner	3791374540
The Homes We Build	Anne Jonas	178627647X
Number 7 Evergreen Street	Julia Patton	1787416283

Also look at the Royal Institute of British Architects (RIBA) Book Store online at www.ribabooks.com for more ideas for further reading.

Organisations

The following organisations have learning and development departments who run events and have online resources and activities for children and families.

Organisation	Website	Notes
Royal Institute of British Architects (RIBA)	www.architecture.com	RIBA run various events throughout the year for children and families both online and at their Portland Place residence. Additionally, their Learning section contains a large amount of activities and ideas which you can download.
Get Kids Into Survey	www.getkidsintosurvey.com	Developed by industry experts, this website/organisation contains resources, downloads and activities for families and young people with the aim of encouraging them to think about surveying and encourage skills in this field.

Institute of Civil Engineers (ICE)	www.ice.org.uk/what-is-civil-engineering/education-resources	The ICE is the principal body in the UK for Civil Engineers, and their website contains good downloads, resources and activities focussed around civil engineering.